TINY HOUSES: A VERY DIFFERENT APPROACH TO HOME OWNERSHIP

Wednesday, July 19 @ 6:30 pm

The presentation focuses on the basics of planning for and owning a tiny house on wheels; both its challenges and advantages, offering insights unique from the currently popular tiny house themed TV shows. From approximately "how much" to "where to live", it addresses options for their general design, and heat, hot water and electricity choices, among other components. Living in a tiny house year-round is a topic of rapidly developing debate. Learn why something so "cute" and compact could cause so much discussion!

Isa is the Project Manager and lead designer from Tiny House Northeast, a New England and upper NY State tiny house design-build business. Isa earned a M.A. in Regional Economic and Social Development with a concentration in Sustainable Development, including green building materials and construction methods research. Isa has owned a tiny house since she was 19-years old, as do several of the Tiny House Northeast team.

SOUND HEALING

There is no Spiritual Living Discussion Group in July as we are holding a special event:

SOUND HEALING EVENT: Please join us on Tuesday evening July 18, 6-7:30pm, as sound therapist Joe Hayes presents a Sound Healing Workshop at the Maxfield Public Library, 8 NH Route 129, Loudon, NH.

Sound Healing is an ancient protocol of wellness and well-being currently undergoing a global renaissance as more and more people experience its many benefits for mind, body, and soul. Sound healing has been extolled by such people as Dr. Oz., Dr. Andrew Weil, Dr. Deepak Chopra, the Dalai Lama, and many others. Attendees are bathed in therapeutic sound and tone, including the didgeridoo, the shruti box, spoken word, sacred chant, and a full complement of Himalayan, quartz crystal, and fusion sound bowls. This is a free event but space is very limited and registration is required for this affirming, unique and profoundly relaxing event.

JOE HAYES is the founder and proprietor of SoundScapers, which for the past eight years has brought sound healing workshops to thousands of attendees at hundreds of yoga studios, schools, healing centers, and hospitals throughout New England.
